

With a clinical 27-run win over the Delhi Capitals at home on Wednesday (May 10), Chennai Super Kings are now a step away from confirming a playoff spot in IPL 2023. The four-time champions have consolidated their second position in the points table, and a win in either of their remaining fixtures would take their points tally to 17, enough for a top-four finish. They can make it with 15 points too, provided some of the other results go their way.
